The 18th Sunday

OUR VIRTUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL opened last Sunday at 11 am with good success with 10 teachers and some 40 students on line. Prof. George reported that there were no major glitches, thanks be to God. There is still time to register your child(ren), no matter where you live or worship. In fact, students from Florida, Virginia and New Jersey have joined our school program. Our school superintendant J. C. is waiting to hear from you today.

WE WILL LIVESTREAM OUR Holy liturgy this weekend on Saturday, the 4th at 6 pm, for all our dear faithful around the Country. Please tell all your friends and family members about this great and unique opportunity to pray and sing with us this weekend.

WE HAVE JUST COMPLETED the refurbishing and regilding our church dome and cross, as well as the entire superstructure atop the church. The entire unit now shines like the noon sun! We need a few thousand dollars to pay this expense and we thank, in anticipation, all the good folks who love our parish and church as evident in their generosity.

TO REGISTER YOUR YOUNG ONES in our virtual school program, simply beam up our parish website and fill out the registration form there for each child. We will then contact you and assign the proper grade for Sunday's session at 11 am.

NEXT SATURDAY we will celebrate the wedding of Matt Klukas and Sarah Holowis. We all pray that the Good Lord Jesus will bless this young couple with much love, strong faith and a great family.

NEXT SUNDAY we will baptize and chrismate (confirm) the baby boy and baby girl of Jen Consoli, who are coming from California for the sacraments. We all hope and pray the all-loving Lord Jesus will bless these two children with strong health and a lasting love for our Lord Jesus the Christ - for many good years.

DIVINE SERVICES FOR THE WEEK

TODAY'S TROPAR: While the stone was sealed by the Jews, and soldiers guarded Your most pure Body, You rose on the Third Day, O Savior, giving life to the world. And so the Angels cried out to You: "O Giver of Life, Glory be to Your Resurrection, and Your Kingdom, O Lover of all mankind.

GLORY TO THE FATHER AND THE SON...

TODAY'S KONTAK: As God You rose from the grave in glory and restored the world to life. Now the human race sings praises to You as God, as death has vanished. Adam and Eve exult and cry out: "O Christ, You are the One Who gives Resurrection to all."

TODAY'S PROKIMEN: Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, for we have trusted in You, amen.

Cove, R. Arnold
