November 21-22, 2020 Thanksgiving

AS WE CELEBRATE Thanksgiving this coming Thursday, all good Christians will thank the Lord for saving us from the wages of sin by His holy Resurrection. We also must thank Him for the love in our hearts and family at the table. We also are to thank Him for our wonderful Faith and church, our health and our dear Parish. And finally we thank God for our health, our home and our happiness this blessed day.

WE WILL LIVESTREAM the Holy liturgy on Sunday, the 22nd, at 9 am with a special treat of hearing from our highschool students and their Thanksgiving prayers to open the service. Be sure that all your family and friends tune in Sunday morning. Next weekend we will once again send out via YouTube our Holy Liturgy on Saturday, Nov. 28 at 6 pm.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL PROGRAM will be livestreamed this Sunday morning at 11 am via Google Meet. There is still time to register your students for this truly amazing program. Simply link up with our parish website and fill out the school registration form. We will contact you and invite onto our school you and your child/children.

WE WELCOME the Knights of Columbus to our Saturday evening Liturgy this weekend at 6 pm. We thank the good men of the Knights for their kindness and generosity this year to our parish, particularly executives Mark Kochanowsky and Jake Smith. God bless all the Bridgeport Knights.

AS OF THIS WRITING (Thursday) our office has not yet received the applications of the K of C scholarship program. As soon as we receive these forms, we will get them out to you.

PLEASE CONTINUE TO PRAY for all our ailing and struggling folks: Aunt Helen Popivchak, Gina Plisiewicz, Maryanne Cameron, and all of our elderly and Corona victims.

GLORY TO THE FATHER AND THE...

You did rise again From the grave, and You did raise up the dead. Adam and Eve did rejoice in Your Resurrection and all the ends of the world did exult in Your rising from the dead, O Most Merciful One Jesus.
