THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Prove Your Faith by Your Trust

'Look at the birds of the air,' says Jesus. What a splendid example for our faith to follow! If God's providence bestows an unfailing supply of food on the birds of the air who neither sow nor reap, we ought to realize that the reason for people's supply running short is human greed. The fruits of the earth were given to feed all without distinction and nobody can claim any particular rights. Instead, we have lost the sense of the communion of goods, rushing to turn these goods into private property. The birds do not know famine because they do not claim anything specially for themselves and neither do they have any envy of others. 'Consider the lilies of the field: not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed like one of these. If God so clothes the grass which is alive today and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe one of you!' Listen to these stupendous and uplifting words. With this parable of flowers and grass the Lord urges us to hope that God will also be merciful to us. Nothing is more persuasive than a glance at unthinking creatures who have received such beautiful dress from Providence. Surely we should be all the more ready to believe that human beings, if they entrust themselves completely to God and free themselves of all their worries, will not lack anything.

TODAY'S TROPAR:

When You did descend unto death, O life Immortal, You vanquished hell with the splendor of Your Divinity. When You raised the dead from the subterranean abodes, all the Powers of heaven cried out: O Life-Giver Christ, glory be to You.

GLORY TO THE FATHER AND THE SON ...

You did rise from the tomb, O Savior Almighty, And Hell saw this miracle and was afraid, as the dead began to rise. Creation also saw this miracle and exults with You, and the world, O My Savior, praises You forever.

TODAY'S PROKIMEN:
My strength and my song is the Lord, my Salvation.
