extensive collection of Egyptian artifacts. Many forgotten treasures were holed up in the basement of a Paris museum. One day, some workmen uncovered a forgotten burial case pushed into a dark corner of the basement. They decided that the box would be an excellent storage container for many of the smaller artifacts. So, without consulting any of the museum au-

In the 1940's, France was known for it's thorities, the workmen took it upon themselves to empty the contents of the box into the sewer. They then filled the empty box with odds and ends. Some time later, they made the unhappy discovery that they had mistakenly discarded the remains of Cleopatra, one of the most famous women of ancient Egypt! In ignorance, people regularly discard things of great value. One of the more valuable We see this in today's Gospel reading of the Parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man. The rich man had everything he needed in the world, while Lazarus was in constant need. Each day, the rich man had the opportunity to attend to the need of Lazarus who wanted nothing more than to eat the crumbs which fell from his table. The rich man, for his part, never abused Lazathings that people discard are opportunities.

and for this he was condemned. The sin of the rich man was not his welath, it was his blindness - blindness to the needs of others. Let us not forget that "the truly rich man is not one who possesses much, but one who gives much." (Saint John Chrysostom)

Oct. 23-24, 2021 The 22nd Sunday

THIS WEEKEND we plan to livestream the Divine Liturgy on Saturday, the 23rd, at 6 pm on the YOUTUBE platform. Be sure to inform all your children and grandchildren about this unique opportunity to sing and pray with us every weekend. Next weeke we planto livestream the Holy Liturgy on Sunday, Oct. 31 at 9 am.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL is faring quite well with about 60 students, 10 teachers=catechists, and 3 support staff. It is never too late to enroll your child. Simply beam up our parish website and fill out the registration form. We will contact you and connect you to our Sunday morning 11 am class room. Remember: Whereas your local school teaches children how to live, our school teaches thm how to love!

A FEW COPIES of Fther Pastor's October publication in "The Fisherman" may still be available today. See Father after Liturgy for a copy of this beautiful story of his first fishing trip with his Dad Peter.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK all our sickly and struggling faithful, such as from Newmaster, Luba Jackson, Irene Dychdala, Marie Seder, Jimmy Deskiewicz, the Katarynick Family, the Tomchick Family, and all our parish elderly. Perhaps a card, a prayer...?

TODAY'S EPISTLE READING is about the sin of boasting from St. Paul's Epistle to the Galations 6:11-18. The Gospel reading concers the rich man who ignored the poor man Lazarus begging at his gate, Luke 16, 19-31.

THIS WEEKEND WE TURN BACK THE CLOCK ONE HOUR Saturday midnight. We all will enjoy an extra hour of rest, thanks be to the Lord.

WE ARE ALL SO VERY GRATEFUL to all the folks for their love and gifts to our beloved parish. We thank those folks who donated in person, as well as those who sent their donations via the Mail. God bless all of you with good health and much love for many good years!
