September 5-6, 2020 The 14th Sunday

OUR TERRIFIC SUNDAY SCHOOL will be conducted on-line this fall semester to protect our students and parents and teachers from the danger of the current pandemic. All you have to do is fillout the registration form for your youngsters on the parish Website (above) and submit this form to Prof. Maxim. We will conduct classes for students from Pre-School through highschool, including First solemn Communion. Be sure to tell all your neighbors, friends, sons and daughters about this free program to teach our youth about Jesus and His Holy Church.

THIS WEEKEND we will live-stream the Divine Liturgy on YouTube at 6 pm Saturday evening. Next weekend we will broadcast the Liturgy on Sunday the 13th at 9 am. Please tell all your friends and relatives to tune in and share this great opportunity to sing and pray with us.

OUR SCHOOL TEACHERS AND STAFF will meet next Sunday, the 13th, in the Church following the 9 am Divine Liturgy., as we prepare to make history with our remote learning program. We are so very proud and thankful for the chance to work with our talented and loving school staff.

WE PRAY THIS WEEK for all our faithful and elderly faithful who are ailing at home and in the hospital. Although Father Ronald cannot get out to visit these folks for obvious reasons, we pray for them at the parish. We also pray for Prof. George Maxim and Brian Santangelo that they can recover quickly and completely from their ailments.

A GREAT BIG THANK-YOU goes out today to all the good people for their generosity to our parish during these betroubled times. We thank the good people for their donations both in church and by mail. Our parish can still thrive and prosper only because of your loving goodness.

OUR PARISH is now beginning to schedule both baptisms and marriages. Please give Father Ronald a call to discuss these sacraments in your family circle.

TO BE MARRIED ON SATURDAY: Stephanie Anton and Michael Lynch. We all pray that the Lord Jesus Christ will bless this young couple with much love, great joy and a strong faith in God "for many good years!"

TODAY'S TROPAR:

O Faithful, let us glorify and adore the Word, Who with the Father and the Spirit, has no beginning.

For our salvation He was born of a Virgin. He deigned to ascend the Cross, suffer death, and by His Resurrection to raise the dead.

GLORY TO THE FATHER AND THE SON...

TODAY'S KONTAK: Into hell You did descend, O Savior, and destroyed its gates. As Creator You raised again all the dead and destroyed the sting of death. You released Adam and Eve from their curse, so we all cry out today: "Save us all, O Lord Jesus".

TODAY'S PROKIMEN: You, O Lord will protect us and keep us from today forever, amen.

COVE, FR. Sonny
